To search for an atlas:

Go to the NMSU library home page. In the first search bar labeled “catalog search-enter search terms” type your search term such as the term “atlas” and the location you are searching for or type the specific title of the atlas you are looking for in the search box. Below we have used the search term “Atlas New Mexico” to find atlases of New Mexico. Then click “go” beside the search box.
The results will be displayed:
