I. Introduction

A. Statement of the Problem
   1. Nature (compared to other countries)
   2. Scope (size of the problem)
   3. Background (Historical context)

B. Literature Review of Pertinent Literature (and what it means relevant to this problem)

II. Methodology

A. How you thought through the problem to arrive at your conclusion while comparing with other information.

III. Results

A. Content (Provide about five (5) solutions)

B. Tabular Material for comparison (Tables are optional)

IV. Implications (Results and obstacles faced by following your solutions)

A. For Human Sexuality (with empirical data)

B. Discussion:
   1. Relationships
   2. Generalizations from Results (agreement and/or contrast)

V. References (APA format)